Used at the
BRITISH EMPIRE GAMES
1950

AUCKLAND, N.Z.

Once again, when stamina and endurance must be put to extreme tests, 'Ovaltine' Food Beverage is called upon to play its part in maintaining health and vitality at its highest level.

Because of its outstanding quality, 'Ovaltine' was officially recognised for use at the Olympic Games . . . London, 1948; Berlin, 1936; Los Angeles, 1932 . . . and was supplied to the 1949 All Blacks in South Africa, and the 1949 New Zealand Cricket Team in England. Day and night, 'Ovaltine' is available for athletes training at the Empire Village at Ardmore and is also served to the competitors wherever events are being contested. 'Ovaltine' is the world's most widely used Food Beverage and has no substitute for quality.

VICTORY CEREMONY

Eden Park, Olympic Pool and Western Springs Stadium will be the venues where the winners of all events of the Games will be acclaimed. When an event has been decided the three place-getters will attend at the ground stipulated and proceed to the Victory Stand.

An announcement will be made over the loud-speaker:

"VICTORY CEREMONY—BRITISH EMPIRE GAMES OF 1950."

The result of the particular event will then be given and as "first" is announced the winner will mount the Victory Stand, taking the central position, a fanfare of trumpets will sound and the flag of the country to which the competitor belongs will be run to the masthead.

The second placing will then be announced, this competitor taking up his position on the right hand of the winner, and the third placing will follow similarly, this competitor standing at the left hand of the victor.

The Chairman of the British Empire Games Federation will then cross to the Victory Stand and present the place-getters with their medallions.

A plain, straightforward ceremony, but one which will live in the memories of those on the Victory Stand as they are acclaimed by the public.

The public is invited to stand during the presentation.
